If possible, we recommend entering the following information:

Title: International Volunteer

Company: TRL Pro Bono Translators Community

Location: (optional) Globe

Start Date: first translating

Description: Interdisciplinary human rights project. Unconditional Global Basic Income and social/ecological mechanism for UN.

The global aim of TRL Pro Bono Translators Community: to emulate the success of the most translated document in history, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, in terms of the quantity of languages it has been translated into.

Our Goal for 2021: to create the most multilingual website in the world. This project is an Open Content project, therefore, each and every translator is able to take part.

An information source available in multiple languages, this community helps to promote TRL/UN and the idea behind it around the globe.
